ACTION STAR-TURNED-Sen. Ramon "Bong" Revilla Jr. yesterday blamed fellow actor and television host Edu Manzano for what he called a botched raid on a Makati City mall where pirated video and music discs were being sold.

Last Wednesday, Revilla, who chairs the Senate committee on public information and mass media, joined a team of Optical Media Board agents who raided the Makati Cinema Square on Chino Roces Avenue.

When the team got to the mall, however, most of the stalls were empty.

REFRESHING TEAS
Eastwood City's Coffee Bean and Tea Leaf offers a varied selection of rich aromatic teas served brewed or as lattes. You can enjoy this with a slice of Chocolate Fudge cake for a special afternoon tea experience.

Delightful holiday offerings

MARCO'S BLK TOO CITY is now serving special dishes for the holiday season. The star of Marco's holiday specials is Roast Turkey with its crispy skin, juicy meat, cranberries and gravy. Besides, Eastwood is the place to be for the whole family this season. Surrounding Shanghai Bistro are many beautifully hand carved wooden items.

On weekends, clowns sing and give beloved Christmas carols, while a real live Santa roams freely with his elves. To add to the season's cheer, they have snow! It is pretty foolish moment! I salute my dearest friend Kevin Tan for turning his dream into reality! For inquiries, call 8976770-74.

On edible gifts

Making a comeback are our all-time favorite cakes:

■ Rum and liqueur cakes—Remember many moons ago when rum cake was the craze? The lady who started it all, the family matriarch, had left us but her legacy lives on. The recipe of the most delicious rum cake was handed down to her sister who herself made an innovation on the old favorite. She now has Limoncello, Orange & Chocolate Rum Cakes. All equally to die for, they come in beautiful boxes. Call 8268012.

■ Tortas—Every filling sandwiched between layers of sponge cake. I recall devouring these when Rita Kenon and George Kapo were still around. Baby Paolo is making them again. Her Alfoghi is a must-try if you have not tasted it yet! My dad loved these! For orders, call 0920-9160114.
